Beginner Class: Morning Session

Join us for a captivating journey into the ancient art of encaustic painting. In the morning session, you'll embark on an exploration of heated encaustic medium, comprised of beeswax and damar resin, as you learn to create luminous artworks on birchwood panels.

What You'll Experience

- Discover the vibrant world of color pigments and learn how to integrate them seamlessly into your encaustic creations.
- Master the techniques of applying encaustic medium to create smooth, primed surfaces, and experiment with basic textures.
- Create four stunning artworks under the guidance of an experienced instructor, each a testament to your newfound skills and creativity.

All materials are included.

Shellac Burn Class: Afternoon Session

- In the afternoon session, delve deeper into the realm of encaustic art with the mesmerizing technique of shellac burning. Learn to craft intricate weblike patterns atop your encaustic paintings, adding depth and dimension to your compositions.

What You'll Experience

- Step-by-step guidance on the process of working with shellac, including building depth and layering multiple shellac burns.
- Create a captivating artwork on a 300mm x 300mm birchwood panel, infused with the unique beauty of shellac burn techniques.
- All materials are included.

Join us for a full day of creativity, exploration, and the enchanting art of encaustic painting.
